Intro: C G C

C G
The Olympic Spirit hangs its head in shame
G C
When police states are allowed to host the games
C G
Like Germany when Hitler reigned supreme
G C
Seeking glory for his murderous regime
Am G
Now China wants to shine upon that stage
Am G
East and West are eager to engage
C G
But human rights the CCP disdains
G C
Feels like 1936 again.

C G
Can you hold an international track meet
G C
When you got a labor camp right down the street
C G
Can you sponsor the Olympics in 08
G C
When you still imprison people for their faith.
Am G
The CCP will change what can be seen
Am G
They'll even paint the grass and mountains green
C G
But their evil nature always will remain
G C
Feels like 1936 again.

C G
They torture people seven days a week
G C
The shock batons are sizzling as we speak
C G
They harvest organs from the Falun Gong
G C
Then cremate them to hide what's going on.
Am G
Put me on your blacklist I don't care
Am G
I hope the people boycott this affair
C G
The stench of genocide is in the wind
G C
Feels like 1936 again.

C G
Reports about the slaughter of the Jews
G C
Quite often didn't even make the news
C G
The world still seems to have a tendency
G C
To ignore big crimes against humanity
Am G
When virtue comes in second place to trade
Am G
Freedom, hope and justice start to fade
C G
The Olympic flame is flickering and dim
G C
Feels like 1936 again
